

Wanstead and Woodford Migrant Support is recruiting passionate people to join its Team

If you share our belief that everyone, no matter where they are from or what their background is, should be treated with dignity and respect and have equal opportunity to achieve their potential, we want to hear from you.

About us

Motivated by Christian faith, Wanstead and Woodford Migrant Support (WWMS) is a small charity in North East London that provides free immigration advice and advocacy for people seeking asylum, refugees and other vulnerable migrants.

Many of the people that we support have experienced insecure immigration status, homelessness or risk of homelessness, poor physical and/or mental health, difficulties finding employment and money issues. We are currently developing our provision to include more holistic support for those who access our services.

- will actively seek and promote equal opportunity for migrants

We would welcome applications from someone who could support us with one or more of our current priorities:

- to identify suitable funders and make applications; and develop a fundraising strategy that will make our work more sustainable
- to recruit a paid volunteer coordinator; and recruit more volunteers to productive and fulfilling positions
